DEDICATION

The decision of dedication was a difficult one this year due to the fact that so many outstanding events took place. First of all the soccer and football teams won the WPIAL Class A Championships, and the tennis team won the WPIAL Section 5 title. The Academic Games Team came back with three awards from Kent State University in National competition. The music and drama departments put on extremely well performances this year, too.

Each senior had a mind of their own this year so no teacher won the unanimous vote of a dedication decision.

With this in mind, we could not fairly decide who the yearbook would be dedicated to. Therefore, this Electra of 1974 is dedicated to the entire student body and faculty who compose SHS.

Standing: R. Hutzler, D. Thompson, J. Mowan, J. Ryan, W. Lentz, F. Barniker. Seated: D. Tressa, M. Orf; secretary, C. Desmone; president, J. Hendenburg; Vice president, C. Hodel; solicitor.

If it was possible someone would write a long list of memories that the seniors of '74 will long remember. But something will always be forgotten for someone. No two seniors felt the exact same way about this last year. For some it went slowly and others still can't believe it's over. Seniors are special people, their last year in high school is much more than just waiting for days to end and weekends to begin. Well sometimes. Underneath most of these students that were about to graduate was the planning of a future. No matter if it were college, marriage, working, playing, or just planning some more. Getting through these years there have been joyful but also painful times. Certain places, events, teachers and classes may come to mind. Springdale High School was a place for learning, having friends, and discovering oneself. No one can say that it was the best school around, but — it surely wasn't the worst.

With malice toward none, charity for all.

Jill Ann Adamson
So maidenly and feminine her demeaning.

Craig Alan Anderson
He only is a well-made man who has a good determination.

Geraldine Jean Anderson
Plain, without pomp and pride, without a show.

Debra Joan Balbo
She that was ever fair and never proud had tongue at will and yet was never loud.

Debra Louise Beerworth
Without friends, no one would chose to live, even if she had all other goods.

Phyllis Kaye Bell
A constant friend is a thing rare and hard to find.

Richard Cortland Benson
A clever imp, devilish, yet a man.

Gregory Ronald Blomgren
A man is but what he knoweth

Margaret Julia Bonetti
Kindness is the sunshine in which virtue grows.

Mark Borkovich
I'll walk where my own nature would be leading.

Barbara Jane Borland
Being nice comes natural to those with a heart of gold.

Harold Thomas Borland
The reward for a good deed is to have done it.

Patti Ann Borland
You can only live once, but if you live right once is enough.

William K. Bowman
There is only one success-to be able to spend your life in your own way.

Cheryl Ann Brown
Absence makes the heart grow fonder.

Kim Robert Brumbaugh
A perfect gentleman in thoughts and ways.

Constance Ann Budz
If what must be given is given willingly, the kindness is doubled.

Michael N. Bulazo
Learning by study, must be won.

David Burkett
There was a laughing devil in his smile.

Joseph D. Burns
He will not build high who does not build for himself.

Vicki Lynn Bursic
A sweet expression is the highest type of female loveliness.

Jack Bush

Knowledge comes by taking things apart, analysis. But wisdom comes by putting things together.

Lynne Rae Calvert
And gentle in her manner, she does bold things in a quiet way.

Nancy Louise Cangilla
Nothing is so popular as kindness.

Mark Kevin Caro
He did not lead the people, he rather followed the wisest.

David Brendan Carroll
He would rather lose his dinner than his jest.

M. Joseph Carroll
Success to the strongest, who always, at last, the wisest and the best.

Mary Elizabeth Cavaliere
The only way to have a friend is to be one.

George Steven Charles Jr.
He is complete in feature, and in mind, with all good grace a gentleman.

Lawrence Beyer Charlton
There is no pride on earth like the pride of intellect and science.

Patricia Chatary
The mildest manners and the gentlest heart.

Judy Christman
Sometimes quiet is an unquiet thing.

Thomas John Ciuchta
In quietness and confidence shall be your strength.

Timothy George Connelly
The man that loves and laughs must sure do well.

Michael Patrick Contento
Nothing is more useful than silence.

Lydia Dianne Copeland
A friend is a present you give yourself.

Diane Lynn Corace
When nature would make anything especially rare and beautiful, she always made it little.

Paula Marie Coradi
Silence brings friendship unknown.

Kathy Louise Criner
We judge ourselves by what we feel capable of doing.

Donald Cunningham
If his will be firmly bent, no stuff resists his minds intent.

Donna Cunningham
Good humor makes all things tolerable.

James Davidson
Life is just one damned thing after another.

Mark Steven DeSantis
He has achieved success who has lived well, laughed often and loved much.

Kevin Mark Deily
The whole life of man is but a point of time therefore let us enjoy it while it lasts.

me.

John J. Hardie
The will of a man is his happiness.

William Robert Hargest
A good mind possesses a kingdom.

Jane E. Harper
To look up and not down, to look forward and not back. to look out and not in, and to lend a hand.

Paul E. Harrity
The less of routine, the more of life.

Kim Ann Haslett
Mine own familiar friend.

Terry Ann Hawk
Oh! She was good as she was fair. None on earth above her.

Thomas W. Heinz
It is good to remember that the tea kettle, although up to its neck in hot water, continues to sing.

Charles Hertzog
To have intelligence, character or genius; to be less stupid than one's neighbor; to be better than the worst; to be one's self.

Pamela Ann Hess
A cheerful temper joined with innocence will make beauty attractive and knowledge delightful.

Janice Marie Hince
Merrily, merrily, shall I live now.

Paul Mayne Hixon
My way of joking is to tell the truth. It's the funniest joke in the world.

Patricia L. Holka
I expect to pass through this world but once. Any good therefore that I can do, or any kindness that I can show to any fellow creatures--let me do it now.

Marian Hussar
A thing of beauty is a joy forever.

Happiness is a habit.

Judith May Turk
Reason's whole pleasure, all the joys of sense, lie in three words-health, peace, competence.

Carol Jean Turner
Who is it that can tell me who I am?

James E. Tymoczko
They are able because they think they are able.

Barbara Ann Vallies
A friend is a person with whom I may be sincere.

Sheree Ann Vergerio
A smile that burst.

Steven L. Weist
The real great man is the man who makes every man feel great.

Kenneth C. Wenzel Jr.
Jesters do often prove prophets.

Mary Ellen Werries
Goodwill is the mightiest practical force in the universe.

Thomas Mark Wessel
A man is as good as he has to be.

Robert William White
Our dignity is not in what we do, but what we understand.

John J. Wilhelm
A believer in the best.

Julie A. Wolenski
Good humor is goodness and wisdom combined.

Karen Louise Wratcher
The mildest manners and the gentlest heart.

Margaret Goldie Zagurskie
Tomorrow life is too late: live today!

Margaret Anna Zgainer
Be civil to all, sociable to many, familiar to few, friend to one, enemy to none.

Debra L. Zimmerman
To love the game beyond the prize.

Paula Jean Zorch
A warm-tender feeling with all forms of existence.

Barry Dorinsky
He is the happiest of whom the world says least, good or bad.

Glenn Elmen
No one knows what he can do, till he tries.

Randy Henderson
It is always the adventures who accomplish great things.

Pamela Michele Ososky
The trouble is small, the fun great.

Roland Prior
They copied all they could, but they couldn't copy my mind.

Michael David Roffol
Give everyday as if they were the last.

We had some good times. Remember how you couldn't wait to graduate? Well now that it's past history are you glad that you did? All the good friends we'll never again see ... All the nice kids and all the jags ... All the cool teachers who often turned out to be nothing but big kids themselves ... All the love and the tears ... And all the goodbyes ... were all part of our good times at S. H. S.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENT PROGRAM

Judy Rosskamp and Beatriz Cobar (Guatemala)

Keith and Karin Shoop and Lito Mauricio Rehzeno (Brazil)

In December of 1973 Springdale High School was greeted with the arrival of three Foreign Exchange Students. When asked about their ideas of the students of Springdale High School most were similar. They said the hospitality of the students and faculty of Springdale High School was tremendous. Everyone went out of their way to be extra nice and helpful.

Lito was quick to explain that the American girls were very strange to him, while Christina and Beatriz felt the same about American boys.

They will never forget Springdale High School, and some of the students here, will never forget them.

Laurel Bachman and Christina Sobreina (Brazil)

The Mellowmen attended three stage band festivals. These included Greensburg-Salem, Alle-Kiski and Clairton. They also attended one competition at Duquesne University where they placed Fourth. In addition they held their own concert here and played at May Day. Their audiences enjoyed such songs as Mother Fingers, Minor Booze and Alone Again Naturally.

Outstanding soloists this year were John Radko, Pat Gilbert, Gary Nagy, and Ed Grajcar, but the whole group together was outstanding, along with their director Mr. John E. Lapato.

Officers: V. Malky, librarian; V. Bursic, Treasurer; J. Harper, Vice President; B. Borland, librarian; J. Ostanoski, Secretary.

President — Debbie Dyer

Choir is also the sounds of Christmas carols in the halls; a song and dance routine; even the fantasy of The Wizard of Oz. It's a lot of hard work, but it's fun, too. And it's a special feeling we have for each other and our audiences.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is hard to put down in writing all the thanks we need to express to so many different people who helped us this year.

To start with, there's our advisors Mr. Charles Williams and Mr. William Sinclair, Who often settled "heated discussions" and financial affairs.

Thanks to the photographer's from Colao's who were always here to take pictures when we needed them most.

In the typing department thanks go to Vicki Malky (from the rest of us) for working into the wee hours of the morning to get it done.

We also feel that Karen Manning was exceptional with the quotes committee and thanks should also be extended to her. We hope you like your quotes as much as we do.

Special thanks to Jane Harper for being there anytime we needed any kind of job done including typing and quotes.

Special thanks are also extended to Margaret Zgainer (from the rest of us) for the extra effort she put forth to make sure all pages reached their deadlines.

Our Junior Editors: Denise Watts; head, Darlene Sasinoski, Barb Takach, Wendy Wareham and Karen Seles, have proved that they are ready to undertake the big job awaiting them next year. We wish them lots of luck with Electra '75.

We feel we've captured SHS students in their many different moods, but mostly we feel we've caught them in their best hours here at Springdale High School.

The Editors,
Chris Duncan
Pam Hess
Vicki Malky
Terri Perpich
Margaret Zgainer
